WHAT CLIENTS SAY

"AnvilEight combines modern project-management methods (real Scrum) with a dedicated and highly skilled technology staff that can deliver complex front- and back-end functionality in a timely fashion."

— Helmer Wieringa, Product Manager, NewInBridge B.V. (4-year partnership)

"Andrii has pulled together teams for me on different projects over the past few years. They specialize in Python-based web development and mobile apps. I've learned a lot about good development practices from them, some of which I now try to teach to my students!"

— Professor Paul Resnick, University of Michigan (10+ year partnership)
